| 1. | yes there would be no where for people to park their cars. I think if the main stree was closed and a diversion clearly marked the market could be held on the main street | view |
| 2. | If it is held at the top of Briggate passing traffic will not see it. If it is held in Wesley Place where will passing traffic park? | view |
| 3. | Parking. | view |
| 4. | parking maybe | view |
| 5. | NO | view |
| 6. | No not if its regular and well advertised so people parking are made properly aware | view |
| 7. | There is limited public parking in Silsden as it is. Using a car park will make the problem worse and put people off. | view |
| 8. | there will be nowhere for anyone to park. Knowing what people are like in Silsden hardly anyone will be bothered to walk | view |
| 9. | there is insufficient parking space in Silsden as it is, most markets only offer low quality goods and there presence would affect local independent shops | view |
| 10. | Great location just possibility of parking problems for passing trade | view |
| 11. | NO | view |
| 12. | as long as park and ride is encouridged | view |

25. wesley plase is ideally situated but putting a market on it could lead to parking problems for poeple wanting to visit silsden to come to the market. signs to alternate parking areas, such as the car park where the recycling bins are, would be a good idea if wesley place was to be used. view
26. using the car park at the top of briggate would make the market harder to find for passing motorists
YES WHERE ARE PEOPLE GOING TO PARK? WHEN THE CARPARK IS USED AS A MARKET. I'M SURE THE RESIDENTS OF SKIPTON ROAD AND NEIGHBOURING STREETS DON'T WANT ANY MORE TRAFFIC THESE PLACES ARE ALREADY A DANGER TO CAR DRIVERS AND PEDESTRIANS. YOUR UNABLE TO PARK ON THE CARPARK ON BRIGATE ROAD AS ARE LOCAL TAXI FIRM USE THIS AS THERE BASE. view

THE IDEA OF A MARKET IN THEORY IS GOOD BUT AT THE END OF THE DAY WE ARE ONLY A SMALL TOWN NOT SKIPTON, IT WOULD PROBABLY SEEM VERY POPULAR TO START WITH BUT I DO THINK THAT THIS WOULD WEAR OFF AS QUICKLY PROBABLY AT THE DETRIMENT OF ARE LOCAL SHOPS WHICH ALREARY PROVIDE A EXCELLENT SERVICE. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Hold the market in Briggate. It would be easy to close the street and it would be easy for traffic to be diverted via Bell Square. 2. maybe make it part bootsale part market 3. NO 4. Close the main street. Send the traffic around Silsden. A proper street market would attract people from outside. 5. If the market is designed to bring people in from other areas there will be an increase in traffic, I don,t think a market will particularly help shops unfortunately there is not much of any interest to keep people occupied unlike other places that have shops to browse in ie: second hand book shops, antiques, crafts etc. 6. Forget the idea. 7. a good quality high class products/ true farmers market might get more of the passing trade 8. IETS GET IT UP AND RUNNING 9. ignore all the moaners 10. Wesley place car park could do with a bit of a face lift - re-paint the bollards and such like. Would make shopping experience better.
Also if people are to be attracted into Silsden to the Market the public toilets will need to be open and clean. 11. use town hall 12. Use the town hall.
Any saturday would do which ever is least likely to clash with other things going on in Silsden & surrounding area.
Supply refreshments more money in the pot 13. Great idea, lets see this happen! 14. belton road or the punch bowl car park could be potential other sites 15. WHY NOT MAKE USE OF THE GREEN ON BRADLEY ROAD, IT ALWAYS SEEMS TO VERY POPULAR ON GALA DAYS AND ALSO ON BONFIRE NIGHT. PEOPLE COULD THEN MAKE USE OF THE CARPARKS AND WALK THE SHORT DISTANCE FROM THE TOWN. 16.
