- 1 Feedback-discussion re bonfire night
- 2 Christmas market-raised £37.80 by holding a raffle. The prize was unclaimed after ten days so it was decided to donate it to the scouts Christmas fair to help with their funds
- 3 YC asked how self service library worked which this was explained as best as we could.
- 4 Matty is putting the YC video on hold until further notice
- 5 Members talked about concerns re donating funds to build a hub in the park. Mags explained planning procedures would have to be followed
- 6 Mags discussed availability of council land at Delf Hill and possibilities for its use as a community resource. Further discussions at next meeting
- 7 AOB. Ben brought up possibility of scouts being involved with future YC events. Mags/Ben to liaise

James brought up Christmas lights and possibility of YC purchasing lights for next year. Mags said Matty had already been involved with putting up lights and would YC like to attend a meeting in new year with Lights/Gala committee and the company we purchase lights from and become more involved in future, YC said yes
